Sermon for Today

Perfection at the Plate (Genesis 3:1-7)

A SERMON FROM GENESIS 3:1-7

We welcome our visitors to our services this special morning at the West Side Church of Christ. We are glad you are here. If you're wondering what to expect from today's worship, here is a synopsis. We will have congregational a cappella singing (non-instrumental) where you are invited to sing with us. Someone will lead the church in prayer. We will partake of the Lord's Supper, and if you feel comfortable to share in the meal with us, please feel free to do so. Our members will be asked to contribute to the work of this church; we don't expect our visitors to help fund our ministries. Our preacher will deliver a sermon, followed by an invivation (e.g. altar call) for anyone wishing to respond to the Gospel. We will finish our worship about 11:00 and then go to the Fellowship Hall where a dinner has been prepared. We hope you will join us.

Memories of Jacky –

“Jacky was one of the finest fellows I have known. It was obvious that he loved the Lord and put Him first and his family next. He was always interested and concerned about your well-being and often asked about your whole family. He was an inspiration to all who knew him. He worked hard spreading the gospel to those who never heard the Word. He will be missed very, very much at West Side and in the whole community. No doubt he is singing praises with the Lord now in person.”

~Amy Deason

“Years ago I was giving Jacky piano lessons. The lessons were scheduled to last for 30 minutes; however, after 25 minutes of lessons, I couldn't get Jacky to stay still and listen. As a reward I would let him scoot down from the piano bench, and he would head to my mom and dad's refrigerator to see what was available to eat. I realize like so many others that Jacky's love of music extended past those early piano lessons, and I know his love of music grew stronger throughout his life. He was a very nice fellow, and I know he will be missed by so many.”

~Jean Odum, Former Teacher

“Jacky never put himself first. He was always mindful of others no matter who they were. I am very proud to be his relative, and I am more honored to be a brother in Christ with him. We will see you in Heaven, Jacky, love you.”

~Danny Bruce McGhee, West Side Elder

“Jacky was a wonderful Christian man. He loved deeply and indiscriminately. He had a great personality and sense of humor. He was able to laugh at himself, and that made him a joy to be around. I will surely miss him!”

~Libby Ross

“Jacky was one of the most kind-hearted people I have ever known. I've known him all his life, and I cannot recall a time when he was angry. He was a great ‘encourager’ to others and always put others first instead of himself. He had such a BIG heart. I will miss him for the rest of my life. Family and church functions will just never be the same. It is comforting to know that Jacky is most certainly singing with the angels and Wilmon in Heaven.”

~Vicki Marchetti

“Jacky was one of the people who shared religious theologies with me, which led me to West Side. I will never forget how he sounded like a proud brother when he introduced me to people; he would always tell them all about my ‘special forces’ background and training.”

~Tim Porter

In Loving Memory of Jacky Wilmon Moore December 30, 1961 – April 28, 2012

A Christian, a son, a brother, a husband, a foster parent, an uncle, a nephew, a song leader, a songwriter, a prison minister, a real estate manager, an insurance salesman, and an encouraging, caring, and beloved friend

Scripture Reflective of Jacky's Life

34 “Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. 35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36 I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’

~Matthew 25:34-36

Tributes to Jacky

“I won’t be able to do justice to Jacky in these few words as I reflect on his impact he has had not only in our church but also in our community. We have lost a gem. In the past several years Jacky became more committed to the Lord’s work. This was evidenced by his concern for others. He was devoted and committed to his wife, family, foster kids, West Side, Todd County Detention Center, and the whole Todd County community. Jacky had a desire to help others, a quality we could all take a lesson from in our own lives. Sadly, I will regret I didn’t tell him enough how much I appreciated all he was doing. He spent many hours talking to inmates at all hours of the night that many wouldn’t know anything about. He rarely missed a church service. However, I didn’t say he was always on time. I know he has left us with a great void at our church – much the same as when Wilmon passed away. Don’t you know those two had a great reunion on Saturday even though I’m sure Wilmon questioned him as to why he was there so soon. I will always remember Jacky and quite honestly will strive to be more like him and Wilmon in the future. He’s joined the Heavenly fold; he’s now walking the streets of pure gold. I guess his work here was done, and what an inspirational work it was. Rest in peace, my friend. I love you, and I will miss you!

~Rocky Rager

“Your presence on this earth will be missed by many, many people. Your reach was great; you helped many friends out; you loved the LORD.”

~Chris Coffman, West Side Member

“Sunday mornings at West Side will never be the same without the voice of Jacky Moore. May you rest in peace and sing forever in The Lord’s presence.”

~Dianne Higgins, Former West Side Member

“My memories of Jacky travel back in time to when I babysat for him as a youngster. A few years later, of course, when I worked at Moore’s IGA, I again saw Jacky on an almost daily basis. Those memories continue to his four years as a student at Todd Central and to his many years as a member of West Side. Jacky’s love of music is truly one love that describes his life; he shared that love with his compassion for those in need. His many contributions to the work of West Side will be recalled by many who knew him in his roles as jail minister, as song leader, as member, and as teacher.”

~Carolyn L. Wells

“Like his dad, Jackie was a true friend with a sincere love for everyone lucky enough to know him. Our loss is Heaven’s gain.”

~Rick Shade, Former West Side Member and Deacon

“Jacky Moore was a dear friend, relative, and brother in Christ. If it were not for his willingness to help me and encourage me to lead singing, I would not have the knowledge I do now to work in the church as I do. Jacky was, as many Christians strive to be, a Great Encourager. There was not a time that I saw Jacky that he was not giving a compliment. He leaves behind a legacy that will be remembered forever. He will always be remembered in my eyes as a man with a smile on his face and a song in his heart, ready to help anyone and everyone at a moment’s notice with a cheerful heart. I love you, Jack, and you will be missed beyond measure! I wish I could’ve told you how much you meant to me, but now I know to live as you did and always show others everyday how much they mean to you.”

~Steven K. McGhee

“Jacky always wore a smile and had a huge heart and kind spirit. I was so sad to hear of his death. He will leave a gaping hole in this world but will make Heaven a little brighter!”

~Lisa Paine Brock, Former West Side Member

“Jacky was my friend for almost 50 years. We grew up together in the same church, attended the same schools, and at times worked together at the same grocery store. He was a friend that would never let anyone down. He was also always encouraging, complimenting, and helping others. His passion for the gospel led him into various ministries. He was a dedicated song leader and a caring prison minister. Jacky left us a good example of Christian service. I will honor his memory forever.”

~Johnny Shumate, Former West Side Member

“I have so many memories of Jacky, and it is difficult to select just one. However, the one I remember the most is the beaming smile he had when I asked him the first time how he felt about being a dad to his foster children. I will always cherish the memories we shared.”

~David Watkins
